5. The resolution regarding the redemption of shares should determine especially legal basis of redemption, the level of remuneration for shareholder holding the redeemed shares or justification of redemption of shares without remuneration and the way of reduction of share capital.

The Company's supplementary capital and reserve capitals

The Company establishes supplementary capital to cover the losses that may arise from the performance of the Company. Annual write-offs for the supplementary capital should total at least 8 percent of the net profit for each financial year and should not be suspended until such capital reaches the value of at least one third of the share capital. The value of write-offs for the supplementary capital is established by the Shareholders Meeting. Extra cash from share issuance over their nominal value, the remaining cash after covering the cost of issuance and also the extra payments made by shareholders are all to be transferred to the supplementary capital. The Shareholders Meeting approves the use of the supplementary capital, nevertheless a third of the share capital can be used only to cover a loss as reported in the financial statement.

The Company establishes a capital reserve (fund) from write-offs from the net profit for this capital. The value of these write-offs is to be defined by the Shareholders Meeting. Reserve capital can be used to cover special losses or expenditures, and also to increase the share capital and dividend payment. Besides, the Company can establish funds in accordance with the regulations of the law.

Profit designation

The Company's net profit is designated for the dividend payment, the Company's capitals and funds and other purposes, on the basis of rules specified by the Shareholders Meeting.

Shareholders Meeting

A Shareholders Meeting is held at the Company's registered office or can be held in Warsaw.

A Shareholders Meeting is convened by the Management Board in the situations specified in the Company's Articles of Association or the Code of Commercial Companies.

An Ordinary Shareholders Meeting should be held within six months from the end of every financial year for the Company.

1. An Extraordinary Shareholders Meeting is convened by the Management Board on their own initiative, on the motion of the Supervisory Board or on the motion of a shareholder or shareholders representing at least one twentieth of the Company's share capital, within two weeks from placing such motion. The motion regarding convening of the Shareholders Meeting should describe specific issues for the agenda or include draft resolution regarding proposed agenda.
2. An Extraordinary Shareholders Meeting can be convened by the shareholders representing at least half of share capital or at least half of total votes in the Company.
3. A shareholder or shareholders representing at least one twentieth of the Company's share capital can require to place specific issues in the agenda of the nearest Shareholders Meeting according to generally applicable provisions.

The Supervisory Board can convene an Extraordinary Shareholders Meeting if the Supervisory Board considers the convention as desirable. The Supervisory Board can convene an Ordinary Shareholders Meeting if the Management Board does not convene the Shareholders Meeting within two weeks from the day the Supervisory Board submitted the appropriate request.

A Shareholders Meeting is convened in the way and on the rules indicated in generally applicable provisions.

The competence of the Shareholders Meeting is in particular the following:

1. consideration and approval of the Company's annual financial statement, annual Management Board report on the Company's activities, and consolidated financial statement of the Company's Capital Group and Management Board report on the Company's Capital Group activities for the previous financial year;
2. acknowledging the fulfilment of duties of the Supervisory Board and Management Board members;
3. deciding on the allocation of profit and the covering of losses as well as on the consumption of funds created from profit, with restrictions to special regulations designating a different way for their consumption;
4. appointing the Supervisory Board members, subject to § 8 item 2 of the Articles of Association, and establishing of principles for their remuneration;
5. increasing and decreasing the share capital unless otherwise stated in the Code of Commercial Companies and the Company's Articles of Association;
6. decisions relating to claims for the rectification of damages caused during the establishment of the Company or during its supervision or management;
7. approving the sale and lease of the Company's enterprise or its self-operating part and establishing a limited property right on such enterprise or its self-operating part;
8. granting consent for the sale of a real estate, perpetual usufruct or share in the real estate, which net book value exceeds one twentieth of the Company's share capital;
9. changes to the Company's Articles of Association;
10. creating and liquidating supplementary capitals and other capitals and Company's funds;
11. passing resolution on redemption of shares and buying shares in order to redeem, subject to § 4 of the Articles of Association;

7 (a)

Purchase of a real estate, perpetual usufruct or a share in a real estate, regardless of its value, as well as disposal of a real estate, perpetual usufruct or a share in a real estate, which net book value does not exceed one twentieth of the Company's share capital, does not require a resolution of the Shareholders Meeting.

Subject to different provisions stated in the Code of Commercial Companies and the Articles of Association, resolutions of the Shareholders Meeting are passed with an absolute majority of votes cast, while votes cast mean votes "for", "against" and "abstain."

Resolutions of the Shareholders Meeting regarding premium shares and concerning merger of companies when all the Company's assets are transferred to another company, winding-up of the Company (including winding up due to relocation of the Company's registered office abroad), liquidation of the Company, its restructuring and decrease of the share capital by cancellation of part of the shares without simultaneous increase of the capital are passed with majority of 90 percent of votes cast.

9 (a)

The resolution of the Shareholders Meeting regarding a decision not to consider an issue placed on the agenda may be adopted only if it is supported by important reasons. The resolutions regarding removing an item from the agenda or a decision not to consider an issue placed on the agenda require the majority of 75 percent of votes cast, with the reservation that the shareholders present at the Shareholders Meeting who had placed the motion to include such an issue on the agenda, gave approval for its removal or decided not to consider that issue.

Subject to item 11, one share gives the right to one vote on the Shareholders Meeting. The shareholders have the right to participate and exercise their voting rights in person or through a duly authorised representatives.

1. The voting right of the Company's shareholders is restricted in such a way that on the Shareholders Meeting none of them can exercise more than 10 percent of the total votes existing in the Company as of the day when the Shareholders Meeting takes place, with the reservation that for the purpose of establishing principles for persons buying significant stakes of shares stated in Law on Public Trading of Securities such restrictions concerning voting rights do not exist. The above mentioned voting right restriction does not concern Nafta Polska S.A., the State Treasury and depositary bank, which on the basis of an agreement between the bank and the Company issued depositary receipts in connection with the Company's shares (in case this entity exercises its voting right from the Company's shares). For the purposes of this item the voting right exercised by the subsidiary is understood as exercise of voting right by the parent entity as stated in Law on Public Trading of Securities, and for the counting of votes to which a shareholder is entitled the number of votes per share is added to the number of votes per share a shareholder would have if depositary receipts owned by him/her were exchanged for shares.
2. A shareholder, under provisions of herein item, is each person, including its parent entity and subsidiary, that has directly or indirectly the right to vote at the Shareholders Meeting , on the basis of any legal title; it refers also to the person that does not hold the Company's shares, especially user, lienor, person entitled on the basis of depositary receipt under understanding of the Act on Trading in Financial Instruments of July 29th 2005, and also a person entitled to participate in the Shareholders Meeting despite the fact of disposal of owned shares after the record day for the Shareholders Meeting.
3. Parent entity and subsidiary for the purpose of herein item mean an entity that:
 - a) is a parent entity, subsidiary or at the same time parent entity and subsidiary in the meaning of provisions of the act on competition and consumers protection, dated 16 February 2007, or
 - b) is a parent entity, higher level parent entity, subsidiary, lower level subsidiary, jointly controlled entity or at the same time having a statue of parent entity (also higher level parent entity) and subsidiary (also lower level subsidiary and jointly controlled entity) in the meaning of the act on accountancy, dated 29 September 1994, or
 - c) has a significant influence (parent entity) or is being significantly influenced (subsidiary) in the meaning of the act on financial relations transparency between public authorities and public entrepreneurs and on financial transparency of some entrepreneurs, dated 22 September 2006, or
 - d) votes coming directly or indirectly from the Company's shares are subject to cumulating with the votes of another entity or other entities on the basis of provisions of the act on Public Offering, Conditions Governing the Introduction of Financial Instruments to Organised Trading, and Public Companies, dated 29 July 2005, in connection with holding, disposing or acquiring significant blocks of the Company's shares.
4. Shareholders that votes are subject to cumulating and reduction in accordance with the provisions of the herein item, are together called a Grouping. Cumulating of votes is a sum of votes that are held by the certain shareholders participating in the Grouping. Reduction of votes is a decrease of total number of votes in the Company at the Shareholders Meeting that is held by the shareholders participating in the Grouping. Reduction of votes is made according to the following rules:

- a) number of votes of a shareholder that holds the highest number of votes in the Company, among the shareholders participating in the Grouping, is reduced by the number of votes equal to the surplus over 10 percent of the total number of votes in the Company, held by the all shareholders participating in the Grouping,
 - b) if, despite the reduction mentioned in letter a) above, the total number of votes at the Shareholders Meeting held by the shareholders participating in the Grouping, exceeds the limit mentioned in point 1 of the herein item, there is made a further reduction of votes that are held by the other shareholders participating in the Grouping. Further reduction of votes of the other shareholders is made in the order based on the number of votes held by the shareholders participating in the Grouping (from the highest number to the lowest number). Further reduction of votes is made until the total number of votes held by the shareholders participating in the Grouping does not exceed 10 percent of the total number of votes in the Company,
 - c) in each case a shareholder, whose right to vote is reduced, has a right to vote with at least one vote,
 - d) limitation of votes refers also to the shareholder who is not present at the Shareholders Meeting.
5. To make grounds for cumulating and reduction of votes in accordance with provisions of the herein item, the Company's shareholder, Management Board, Supervisory Board and certain members of those bodies, can request from the shareholder information if she or he is a person who:
- a) is a parent entity, subsidiary or at the same time parent entity and subsidiary in the meaning of provisions of the act on competition and consumers protection, dated 16 February 2007, or
 - b) is a parent entity, higher level parent entity, subsidiary, lower level subsidiary, jointly controlled entity or at the same time having a statue of parent entity (also higher level parent entity) and subsidiary (also lower level subsidiary and jointly controlled entity) in the meaning of the act on accountancy, dated 29 September 1994, or
 - c) has a significant influence (parent entity) or is being significantly influenced (subsidiary) in the meaning of the act on financial relations transparency between public authorities and public entrepreneurs and on financial transparency of some entrepreneurs, dated 22 September 2006, or
 - d) votes coming directly or indirectly from the Company's shares are subject to cumulating with the votes of another entity or other entities on the basis of provisions of the act on Public Offering, Conditions Governing the Introduction of Financial Instruments to Organised Trading, and Public Companies, dated 29 July 2005, in connection with holding, disposing or acquiring significant blocks of the Company's shares.

The right mentioned herein is also a request to disclose the number of votes that the Company's shareholder hold individually or together with the other shareholders of the Company. A person who did not fulfill or unsuitably fulfilled information duty, mentioned herein point, until the information duty offence is deleted, can vote only with one vote and voting by such a person with the other shares is ineffective.

6. In relation to provision of point 1 of herein item, in accordance to which execution of voting rights by the subsidiary shall be considered as execution by the parent entity, to avoid interpretation doubts, it is stated that the reduction of the voting right, mentioned in point 1, does not concern subsidiaries of the State Treasury and Nafta Polska S.A.
7. In case of interpretation doubts provisions of herein item shall be understood according to Article 65 § 2 of the Civil Code.

In compliance with appropriate provisions of the Code of Commercial Companies the change of the Company's object of an scope of business can be executed without the buy-out of shares.

Supervisory Board

The Company's Supervisory Board consists of six to nine members, including the Chairman, Vice-Chairman and the secretary.

Members of the Supervisory Board are appointed and recalled in the following manner:

- 1) the State Treasury represented by the Minister of the State Treasury is entitled to appoint and recall one member of the Supervisory Board;
- 2) other members of the Supervisory Board, including all members mentioned in item 5 of this article are appointed and recalled by the Shareholders Meeting.

The State Treasury's privilege to appoint one member of the Supervisory Board expires at the moment the State Treasury sells all its shares of the Company.

1. Term of office of the Supervisory Board members is common and is terminated on the day of the Ordinary Shareholders Meeting that approves the financial statement for the second full financial year of the term of office. The beginning of such a common term of office is on 31 May 2007.

2. Individual members of the Supervisory Board, and the whole Supervisory Board, can be recalled any time prior to the end of the term of office.

The Chairman of the Supervisory Board is appointed by the Shareholders Meeting. The Vice-Chairman and the secretary are elected by the Supervisory Board from amongst themselves.

- 11) he/she has no significant connections with the members of the Company's Management Board through participation in other companies.

Independent members of the Supervisory Board, before being appointed to the composition of the Supervisory Board, shall produce to the Company a written statement confirming that they comply with the abovementioned provisions. In case when the above mentioned provisions are not met, a member of the Supervisory Board is obliged to immediately inform the Company about this fact. The Company shall inform the Shareholders about the current number of independent members of the Supervisory Board.

In case when the number of independent members of the Supervisory Board amounts to less than two, the Company's Management Board is obliged to immediately convene a Shareholders Meeting and place an issue concerning the changes in the composition of the Supervisory Board in the agenda of the Shareholders Meeting. The Supervisory Board shall act in its current composition until the changes adjusting the number of independent members to the statutory requirements in the composition of the Supervisory Board are made, and the provisions of § 8 item (9a) of hereof Articles of Association are not applicable.

The provisions hereof item shall apply respective in case, when during the term of office the member of the Supervisory Board fulfill conditions to find him independent member of the Supervisory Board.

Sessions of the Supervisory Board are held when necessary, however, not less frequently than once every two months. Moreover, a Supervisory Board session should be convened on the written motion of shareholder or shareholders representing at least one tenth of the share capital, the Management Board or a member of the Supervisory Board. The session should be convened within two weeks from the receipt of such a motion and should be held not later than within three weeks from the day of the receipt of such a motion.

1. Sessions of the Supervisory Board are convened by the Chairman. In case of his absence, or his inability to chair the Supervisory Board session, the responsibility will then be assumed by the Vice Chairman or thereafter, respectively the Secretary will assume responsibility on his own initiative or by following an authorised motion. Sessions of the Supervisory Board are convened by means of a written notification sent to other members of the Supervisory Board at least seven days before the date of the session.
2. In the case when a Supervisory Board session is not convened by the Chairman, or under circumstances described in item 1, respectively by the Vice Chairman or the Secretary within two weeks from the day of receipt of the motion defined in Art. 8 (6) of these Articles of Association, a petitioner can convene the session by himself by means of a written notification sent to other members of the Supervisory Board at least seven days before the date of the session with information about the time, venue and proposed agenda of the session.

Sessions of the Supervisory Board can only take place when all its members have been properly invited. Sessions can also be held without formal convening when all members of the Supervisory Board are present and grant their consent to hold the session and to put specific issues on the agenda.

1. The Supervisory Board can pass resolutions if at least half of its members participate in the session.
2. Subject to the provisions of the Code of Commercial Companies, a resolution of the Supervisory Board can be passed in writing or with the use of direct means of remote communication.
3. Subject to point 4 of this item, resolutions of the Supervisory Board are passed with an absolute majority of the votes cast, in the presence of at least half of the members of the Supervisory Board, while the votes cast mean votes “for”, “against” and “abstain.”
4. In order to recall or suspend individual or all members of the Management Board during their term of office at least two-thirds of all members of the Supervisory Board need to vote “for” the resolution.

9(a)

Passing resolutions concerning the following matters:

- a) any contribution to members of the Management Board provided by the Company or any affiliated entities,
- b) giving permission to sign any significant agreement by the Company or by its Subsidiary with an Affiliated Entity to the Company, a member of the Supervisory Board, or the Management Board, as well as with Affiliated Entities to them,
- c) appointing a certified accountant to audit the financial statements of the Company, requires the assent of at least half of the independent members of the Supervisory Board subject to the provisions of Article 8 item 5.

The above provisions do not exclude applying of Article 15 § 1 and 2 of the Code of Commercial Companies.

10

The Supervisory Board adopts the Regulations for the Supervisory Board specifying its organisation and performance.

11

The Supervisory Board exercises permanent supervision over the Company's activities.
