Who we are

SWOT analysis

Strengths

- Location advantage, ensuring a competitive purchase price for crude oil
- Close proximity to crude oil and product pipelines, giving competitive logistic advantages
- Integrated, modern refining and petrochemical complex, permitting full benefits from economies of scale
- Association of the ORLEN brand name with high quality products and services
- Dominant position in the domestic markets for refinery products and petrochemicals
- The biggest retail network in Poland, and now also active in Northern Germany
- Access to the world market for petrochemical products through Basell Orlen Polyolefins Sp. z o.o.
- Sound financial results and low balance sheet gearing in comparison to industry peers

Weaknesses

- Lack of upstream operations
- Over-large capital group of non-core associate companies
- Predominantly domestic nature of company, with relatively low international exposure
- High employment ratio in some organisational segments

Opportunities

- Entry to the world petrochemical market through Basell Orlen Polyolefins
- Entry to the European retail fuel market via the acquisition of 494 petrol stations in Germany
- Higher margin volumes because of fuel sales in Germany
- Development of the retail segment and further optimisation
- Leading position in the consolidation of downstream companies in Central Europe
- Implementation of the cost cutting and Value Based Management (VBM) programme based on SVA ratio

Threats

- Increase in grey market activity causes a decrease in legal sales
- Increasing competition in the retail market
- Overcapacity of production units in the region
- Unfavourable legal regulations in the areas of obligatory reserves and excise tax
- Restrictive fiscal policy which has a negative influence on the demand for PKN ORLEN's products
