

PHARMACEUTICAL PETROL

GENERAL FEATURES:

Pharmaceutical petrol is a mixture of saturated aliphatic hydrocarbons with the number of carbon atoms of C6 and C7. It is manufactured through catalytic hydrogenation and rectification of non-aromatic residue of aroma extraction.

APPLICATION:

Pharmaceutical petrol is mainly used as solvent in medicine, pharmaceutical industry, plastics processing and electronics.

