10. Closing of the General Meeting.

Pursuant to Art. 402² of the Commercial Companies Code, the Company provides information on participation in the Extraordinary General Meeting:

Shareholder's right to request that certain matters be included in the agenda of the General Meeting

1. A shareholder or shareholders representing at least one-twentieth of the share capital may request that particular matters be included in the agenda of the General Meeting. Such motions should be submitted to the Company's Management Board no later than 21 days prior to the date of the General Meeting and should contain grounds for or a draft resolution pertaining to the proposed item of the agenda. Motions may be submitted in writing at the registered office of the Company at ul. Chemików 7, 09-411 Płock, Poland, or in electronic form and sent via the website <https://www.orlen.pl/en/investor-relations/ir-contacts/contact-for-shareholders> or to walne.zgromadzenie@orlen.pl.
2. The shareholder or shareholders referred to in item 1 should prove that they held the required number of shares as at the date of submitting the motion by attaching to the motion a relevant depositary certificate/depositary certificates or an individual certificate on the right to participate in the General Meeting issued by an entity maintaining their securities account. Where a motion is submitted by a shareholder/shareholders which are legal persons or organisational units referred to in Article 33¹ of the Civil Code, the shareholder/shareholders should send in an official copy of its/their entry in the relevant register (if the motion is submitted electronically – a scanned copy of the document), and submit documents confirming authority of the proxies and further proxies to represent the shareholder/shareholders (sequence of proxies). Any documents submitted to the Company, including documents sent electronically, should be translated into Polish by a sworn translator. Submission of apostilled documents is permitted. Where shareholders submit a motion via electronic channels of communication, all documents should be sent in the PDF format.

3. The Company may take steps to establish the identity of a shareholder and of the shareholder's proxy to verify their rights exercised by means of electronic communication.

Shareholders' right to propose draft resolutions

4. A shareholder or shareholders representing at least one-twentieth of the share capital may, prior to the date of the Extraordinary General Meeting, propose draft resolutions on matters included, or to be included, in the agenda of the Extraordinary General Meeting, by submitting them either in writing to the Company's registered office, at ul. Chemików 7, 09-411 Płock, Poland, or using electronic means of communication, as provided for in item 1 above.

As described in items 2 and 3 above, such shareholder or shareholders should prove that as at the date of submitting their request they hold the required number of shares and should attach documents necessary to establish the identity of the mover or movers.

5. During the General Meeting, each shareholder entitled to participate in the Meeting may propose draft resolutions on the matters included in the agenda.
6. Taking into consideration the rules 4.6 second sentence and 4.8 of the Best Practice for GPW Listed Companies 2021 ('Best Practice') the Company's Management Board requests the shareholders to present draft resolutions no later than 3 days before the General Meeting and to present these draft resolutions along with the justification in order to help the shareholders participating the General Meeting to vote on resolutions with adequate understanding.

Exercise of voting rights by proxy

7. A shareholder may participate in the General Meeting and exercise voting rights in person or by proxy. Powers of proxy to participate in the General Meeting and exercise voting rights must be granted in writing or in electronic form. A shareholder which is not a natural person may participate in the General Meeting and exercise voting rights through a person authorised to make declarations of will binding on that shareholder, or through a proxy.
8. Shareholders may notify the Company of granting or revoking a power of proxy to participate in the General Meeting in electronic form via the Company's website at <https://www.ornlen.pl/en/investor-relations/ir-contacts/contact-for-shareholders> or by sending an email to: walne.zgromadzenie@ornlen.pl. These channels of communication can also be used to submit proxy documents as well as proxy cancellation documents.

Along with the notification of appointment of proxy in electronic form, the shareholder must send in the text of the proxy document. The Shareholder shall provide the Company with documents confirming the authorisation of the proxies and of further proxies (sequence of proxies). Where a proxy is appointed by a legal person or an organisation referred to in Art. 33¹ of the Civil Code, the shareholder (as the principal) shall also send in a scanned official copy of the shareholder's entry in the relevant register. Where a proxy is a legal person or an organisation referred to in Art. 33¹ of the Civil Code, the shareholder as the principal shall also send in a scanned official copy of the proxy's entry in the relevant register. Any documents sent in via electronic channels of communication should be translated into Polish by a sworn translator. Submission of apostilled documents via such channels is also permissible. Together with a proxy notice the shareholder shall send an e-mail address through which the Company will be able to communicate with the shareholder and the proxy and to verify the delivered documents and to identify persons. All documents referred to in this paragraph shall be sent in using electronic means of communication. Provisions of this paragraph do not release the proxy from the obligation to present the documents based on which his/her/its identity can be established, as specified in this paragraph, at the time of drawing up the list of eligible participants of the General Meeting.

The above rules concerning identification of the principal will apply accordingly to notices of revoking proxy appointments.

Any notice of proxy appointment or of revoking proxy appointment which does not satisfy the requirements specified above will have no legal effect with respect to the Company.

The Company may take steps to establish the identity of a shareholder and of the shareholder's proxy to verify their rights exercised by means of electronic communication.

9. Where a proxy is appointed in writing, the proxy is obliged to leave the original of the proxy document with the Company. Further, for the purpose of drawing up the attendance list, proxies should present their identity cards, passports or other reliable documents based on which their identity can be established. The authorisation to represent a shareholder which is not a natural person should be evidenced by an up-to-date official copy of the shareholder's entry in the relevant register (of which the original or a copy certified by a notary public or legal counsel should be submitted) and documents confirming the authorisation of the proxy or further proxies (sequence of proxies).
10. Proxy forms containing the data specified in Art. 402³ of the Commercial Companies Code are available at the Company's website at <https://www.orlen.pl/en/investor-relations/shares-and-bonds/general-meeting>. The use of the forms referred to above is not obligatory.
