Exercise of voting rights by proxy

A shareholder being a natural person may participate in the General Meeting and exercise voting rights in person or by proxy. A shareholder who is not a natural person may participate in the General Meeting and exercise voting rights through a person authorised to make declarations of will on its behalf or through a proxy.

A power of proxy should be made in writing and attached to the minutes of the General Meeting or should be made in electronic form, under pain of nullity.

A power of proxy in electronic form does not require a secure electronic signature verifiable by means of a valid qualified certificate.

A form of the power of proxy, provided at the end of this notice, and a proxy voting form will be available on the Company's website.

A shareholder should notify the Company of granting a power of proxy in electronic form by sending an email to the following email address: wz@grupalotos.pl; in doing so, the shareholder should take all due care to facilitate the validation of the power of proxy. A notification of granting a power of proxy should include precise identification of the proxy and the principal (first name, surname, Personal Identification Number (PESEL) – if assigned, permanent or temporary residence address, telephone number and email address, as well registered address, registration number and registration authority – in the case of legal persons or other organisational units). A notification of granting a power of proxy should also specify the scope of the power of proxy, i.e. the number of shares to be voted at the Meeting and the name of the Company.

A power of proxy in electronic form should be prepared as a separate document and signed by the shareholder or a person/persons authorised to represent the shareholder; the scanned version of the power of proxy should be sent as an attachment in the PDF format to the following email address: wz@grupalotos.pl.

Documents evidencing the shareholder's right to participate in the General Meeting as well as documents (a valid excerpt from the relevant register) confirming the authority of the power of proxy's signatory to represent the shareholder who is not a natural person must be obligatorily submitted along with an electronic power of proxy.

The Company will take appropriate steps to confirm the identity of the shareholder and proxy, in order to verify the validity of powers of proxy given in electronic form. The verification procedure may involve, in particular, contacting the shareholder and the proxy via a return electronic message or a return call to confirm that the power of proxy has actually been granted and to verify its scope. In such a case, the Company reserves the right to treat a lack of reply to any questions asked for verification purposes as inability to confirm the validity of the power of proxy, which will be a sufficient basis to refuse admission of the proxy to the General Meeting. On arrival at the Meeting and prior to signing the attendance list, the proxy should present the original of the identity document specified in the power of proxy in order to confirm his or her identity.

The right to represent a shareholder who is not a natural person should be evidenced by an official copy of the entry in the relevant register or a sequence of powers of proxy, to be presented at the time of drawing up the attendance list. A person/persons granting a power of proxy on behalf of a shareholder who is not a natural person should be indicated in a valid excerpt from the relevant register or other relevant documents. While at the General Meeting, all shareholders and proxies should carry a valid identity document.

Members of the Company's Management Board and Company employees may act as proxies of shareholders at the General Meeting.

If a person acting as a proxy is a Management Board member, a Supervisory Board member, a liquidator, an employee of the Company, or a member of the governing bodies or an employee of the Company's subsidiary, the relevant power of proxy may authorise such person to represent the shareholder at one General Meeting only. The proxy is obliged to disclose to the shareholder any circumstances leading to any actual or potential conflict of interests and may vote exclusively in line with the voting instructions issued by the appointing shareholder. Granting further powers of proxy is not permitted.
